SOLICITORS AND NOTARIES

Ian Macara

Ian is a Partner in the Private Client Division, a member of the Law Society's Probate Section and is currently completing the prestigious STEP (Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners) accreditation process.

Ian graduated from Exeter University in 1993, qualified with Bennett Griffin in 1996 and became a Partner in 2000.

Ian has a pragmatic approach when providing timely legal advice. He embraces the Bennett Griffin principle that "prevention is better than cure". He enjoys turning what can seem complex problems into clearly understood solutions and strategies for the future. His experience and expertise covers Wills, Powers of Attorney, Trusts, Probate and Tax Planning and he is proud to be Attorney and Deputy for a number of local clients who are potentially vulnerable.

Ian has a young family who share his passion for the outdoors and challenges. When he is not travelling, completing a marathon, triathlon or trek, he enjoys reading, art, and good coffee or fine wine with friends.
